

Privacy Policy

At QuantyPhi, we are committed to protecting the privacy and security of our members, partners, and website visitors. This Privacy Policy outlines how we handle information collected through our public-facing websites and reflects our strict confidentiality and data protection standards.

Our Commitment to Privacy

QuantyPhi maintains any personal or identifying information you provide via the Internet in accordance with our usual strict security and confidentiality standards. This policy describes the type of information we collect, how it is used, and the measures we take to protect it. `

Information Collection Practices

In general, you can visit QuantyPhi's website without disclosing your identity or any personal information. However, as part of normal website operations, we may collect certain types of information automatically to help improve website performance and user experience.

Information We May Collect Automatically

- Domain names used to access our website
- Date and time of each website visit
- Pages visited within our website
- Referring website address (if you linked to our site from another)
- IP address (Internet Protocol address assigned to your device)
- Attempted actions on the website (e.g., file downloads) and their success status

This technical data is collected for internal analysis to help us:

- Measure website traffic
- Monitor site usage trends
- Improve website navigation and content relevance
- Detect and prevent misuse or unusual activity from a single IP address

Use of Personal Information

QuantyPhi does not collect, store, or use personally identifiable information unless you voluntarily submit it. You may choose to provide personal information such as your name, email address, or mailing address when:

- Sending feedback or inquiries
- Requesting information or assistance
- Submitting forms through the website

By submitting personal information through our website or by email, you consent to QuantyPhi using the information as described in this policy. This information will:

- Be used only to fulfill your request or respond to your inquiry
- Be accessible only to employees performing official duties
- Not be sold, shared, or disclosed to third parties

Limited Exceptions

In certain limited circumstances, such as compliance with court orders or legal obligations, we may be required to disclose information submitted through the website.

Please note that communications sent via email may become part of QuantyPhi's official or permanent records, although most communications are not retained long-term unless necessary.

Email and Security Considerations

Please be aware that:

- Standard email is not encrypted and may be subject to interception.
- Sensitive or confidential information should not be sent via email.
- For secure communication, please use QuantyPhi's secure member-access website or contact us via postal mail.

Website Security Monitoring

To ensure the security and availability of our website for all users, QuantyPhi utilizes software programs that:

- Monitor network traffic
- Detect unauthorized attempts to upload or alter information
- Prevent activities that could damage or disrupt website functionality

External Links

This privacy policy applies only to QuantyPhi websites. Our websites may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of external sites and encourage users to review the privacy policies of those websites.

Privacy Policy Updates

QuantyPhi reserves the right to update this Privacy Policy to reflect changes in technology, regulations, and our practices. However, no changes may be made to this policy without prior approval from the President/CEO.
